

SERVING AS AN ENACTUS JUDGE

YOUR CHANCE TO BE A PART OF SHAPING
INDIA'S FUTURE BUSINESS LEADERS

Serving as a judge for Enactus competitions means helping students understand the application of business concepts in the real world, giving these students direction for their future careers, and exposing your company to India's premier talent pool.

WHAT IS ENACTUS?

Enactus (formerly known as SIFE – Students In Free Enterprise) is a global non-profit organization operating in 36 countries. Enactus empowers university students to discover their full potential and become the next generation of entrepreneurs and business leaders by creating economic opportunities for their communities. Enactus India has grown to 142 teams this year and the participating teams and institutions see Enactus as one of the best options for the brightest entrepreneurial minds to distinguish themselves.

WHAT ARE ENACTUS COMPETITIONS?

Enactus India conducts a National Competition each year which is judged by leaders from the business community. At the competitions, through a written annual report and an audio visual presentation, Enactus teams present the results of their community outreach projects and compete to determine which team is the most successful in creating economic opportunity for the beneficiaries they are targeting.
